1 Tools

- 1.1 About Upstik.com. Upstik.com is a platform through which Megamadz provides businesses with consumer marketing tools and tools that involve access to and use of the electronic devices of third parties, including but not limited to text and other messaging, QR codes, and notifications (the “Tools”). “Tools” means the products and services provided by Megamadz or its Affiliates via Upstik.com. You gain access to a set number of Tools depending on the monthly marketing plan that you select. You will be required to select your plan (e.g., Basic, Silver, Platinum) (together, your “Plan”) from the options posted on Upstik.com based on your anticipated use of the Tools. Each Plan offers different pricing and feature options and has varying usage limits. Tools include products and services that provide both (a) platform services, including access to Megamadz’s messaging platform and (b) where applicable, communications services used in connection with Megamadz’s messaging platform. All Tools, other available products and pricing on Upstik.com may change at any time at Megamadz’s sole discretion, without notice. The Tools displayed on Upstik.com can be accessed by any person who purchases a Plan, subject to Megamadz’s sole and absolute discretion. Please note that not all price quotes displayed on Upstik.com are in U.S. Dollars; the currency designated may change depending on how or from where you access Upstik.com . The final price of a Plan will be provided immediately prior to payment. Megamadz makes no representations nor warranties that advertised price quotes represent the final total of a Plan. Megamadz is not responsible for any costs incurred by you in conjunction with use of Upstik.com, including but not limited to costs associated with text messaging or transactions which arise from the use of the Tools. As used in these Terms, “Affiliate” means any entity that directly or indirectly controls or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the party specified. For purposes of this definition, “control” means direct or indirect ownership of more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting interests of the subject entity.
- 1.2 Provision of the Tools. Megamadz will: (a) provide access to the Tools to you subject to this Agreement and the applicable Documentation (defined below); (b) provide the Tools in accordance with laws applicable to Megamadz’s provision of the Tools to its customers generally (i.e., without regard for your particular use of the Tools), subject to your use of the Tools in accordance with this Agreement and the applicable Documentation; (c); if applicable, use commercially reasonable efforts to provide you with applicable support for the Services. “Documentation” means any usage guides, policies, and other documents provided by Megamadz relating to or for the Tools, the current version of which is available at <https://upstik.com/customize/addApp>.

- 1.3 Customer Responsibilities. You will: (a) be solely responsible for all use of the Tools and Documentation under your account and any software application or service that you make available to any individual (“End User”) that enables such End User to interface with the Tools (“Customer Application”); (b) not transfer, resell, lease, license, or otherwise make available the Tools to third parties (except to make the Tools available to your End Users in connection with the use of each Customer Application as permitted herein) or offer them on a standalone basis; (c) use the Tools only in accordance with this Agreement, the applicable Documentation, and applicable law or regulation; (d) be solely responsible for all acts, omissions, and activities of your End Users, including their compliance with this Agreement, the applicable Documentation, and applicable law or regulation; (e) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized access to or use of the Tools and notify Megamadz promptly of any such unauthorized access or use; (f) provide reasonable cooperation regarding information requests from law enforcement, regulators, or telecommunications providers; and (g) comply with your representations and warranties set forth in Section 4 (Representations, Warranties, and Disclaimer).
- 1.4 Suspension of Account. Megamadz may suspend your account, including access to any and all Tools if deemed appropriate, upon written notice to you, with or without cause if Megamadz determines, in its sole and absolute discretion: (a) that you or your End Users materially breach (or Megamadz, in good faith, believes that you or your End Users have materially breached) any provision of this Agreement, including their obligations under the Documentation; (b) there is an unusual and material spike or increase in your use of the Tools and that such traffic or use raises concerns of fraudulent activity or such use materially and/or negatively impacts the operating capability of the Tools; (c) that its provision of the Tools is prohibited by any applicable law or regulation; (d) that there is any use of the Tools by you or your End Users that threatens the security, integrity, or availability of the Tools; or (e) that Megamadz believes that information in your account is untrue, inaccurate, or incomplete. You remain responsible for the Fees (as defined in Section 2.3 (Payment Terms)).
- 1.5 Changes to the Services. You acknowledge that the features and functions of the Tools may change over time. It is your responsibility to ensure each Customer Application is compatible with the Tools. Although Megamadz endeavors to avoid changes to the Megamadz tools that reduce compatibility with external systems, if any such changes become necessary, Megamadz will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify you prior to implementation. In the event Megamadz makes a non compatible change to a Megamadz API and such change materially and negatively impacts your use of the Services, you will notify Megamadz of the such impact, and Megamadz may, in its sole discretion, agree to work with you to resolve or otherwise address such impact, except where Megamadz, in its sole discretion, has determined that an particular change is required for security reasons, by telecommunications providers, or to comply with applicable law or regulation.

2 Fees and Payment Terms

- 2.1 Fees. Each Plan offers different pricing and feature options. Once you select your Plan, if you exceed your Plan usage limits, you will incur additional charges for the prior billing cycle based on your current Plan, which will be detailed on your bill and in your account. You have the option to upgrade to a higher tier at any time. If you upgrade during a billing cycle, you may elect to upgrade your package, your audience limit, or both. If you elect to upgrade both, the upgrade amount for the package upgrade is calculated first, and the upgrade amount for the audience limit upgrade is calculated second. You will also have the option to downgrade to a lower tier at any time, but if you elect to downgrade during a billing cycle, your downgrade will not be effective until the end of that billing cycle, and you will still be charged for that entire billing cycle at the higher tier (including any applicable additional charges for the higher tier). When you sign up for a Plan, you agree to monthly recurring billing, starting on the date you sign up. Billing occurs on the same day each month, based on the date that you first started paying for any recurring monthly plan. Payments are due for any month on the same or closest date to the day you made your first monthly payment (the “Pay Date”). If any part of a month is included in the Term, then payment is required for the full month. If you exceed your self-selected usage limits for your Plan, then you’ll have to pay additional charges (as described above) for the prior billing cycle on or before the next Pay Date, even if the Term ends or you downgrade to a lower-priced Plan before that payment is otherwise due.

2.2 Taxes and Communications Surcharges.

2.2.1 Taxes. All fees are exclusive of any applicable taxes, levies, duties, or other similar exactions imposed by a legal, governmental, or regulatory authority in any applicable jurisdiction, including, without limitation, sales, use, value-added, consumption, communications, or withholding taxes (collectively, “Taxes”). You will pay all Taxes associated with this Agreement and your use of the Tools, excluding any taxes based on Megamadz’s net income, property, or employees. If you are required by applicable law to withhold any Taxes from payments owed to Megamadz, you will reduce or eliminate such withheld Taxes upon receipt of the appropriate tax certificate or document provided by Megamadz. You will provide Megamadz with proof of payment of any withheld Taxes to the appropriate authority. Taxes will be shown as a separate line item on an invoice.

2.2.2 Communications Charges. All fees are exclusive of any applicable communications service or telecommunication provider (e.g., carrier) fees or surcharges (collectively, “Communications Surcharges”), you will pay all Communications Surcharges associated with your use of the Services. You will pay all costs, fines, or penalties that are imposed on Megamadz by a government or regulatory body or a telecommunications provider as a result of your or your End Users’ use of the Services.

2.3 Payment Terms. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, payment obligations are non-cancelable and fees, Taxes, and Communications Surcharges (collectively, “Fees”), once paid, are non-refundable. You will pay the Fees due hereunder in accordance with the following applicable payment method:

2.3.1 Credit Card. You are responsible for all Fees due. If your account does not have sufficient funds or your credit card declines a charge for the Fees due, Megamadz may suspend the provision of the Services to all of your accounts until the Fees due are paid in full. You are prohibited from creating new accounts until the Fees due are paid in full. As long as you’re a Member with an active monthly Plan or are otherwise utilizing Tools or have an outstanding balance with us, you’ll provide us with valid debit or credit card (“card”) information and authorize us to deduct your charges against that card. You’ll replace the information for any card that expires with information for a valid one. If your card is automatically replaced with a new card by a payment processor, you acknowledge and agree that we’re authorized to deduct any charges on your account against the new card. Anyone using a card represents and warrants that they are authorized to use that card, and that any and all charges may be billed to that card and won’t be rejected. If we’re unable to process your card order for any reason, we’ll try to contact you by email and may suspend your account until your payment can be processed.

- 2.3.2 Invoicing. If you elect to receive invoices and Megamadz approves you for the same, then (x) invoices will be sent to you each month, via email to the email address(es) you designate in your account and (y) you will pay the Fees due within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice. The Fees are payable in United States dollars, or in any other currency or payment method that Megamadz agrees, in its sole and absolute discretion, to accept. If you fail to pay the Fees and remedy such failure within fifteen (15) days of the date Megamadz provides you with written notice of the same, then Megamadz may (a) assess and you will pay a late fee of the lesser of 1.5% per month or the maximum amount allowable by law and (b) suspend the provision of the Services to all of your accounts until the Fees due are paid in full. You are prohibited from creating new accounts until the Fees due are paid in full.

Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including its meaning or interpretation, shall be resolved solely by arbitration before an arbitrator selected in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The arbitration shall be conducted in California and adjudicated under Delaware law. The arbitrator(s) shall give effect to statutes of limitation in determining any claim. Any controversy concerning whether an issue is arbitrable shall be determined by the arbitrator(s). Judgment upon the arbitration award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.
